Belgrade experience

This sightseeing tour is for curious ones, for all those who want to learn some specific and rare facts about Belgrade and Serbia. In this half-day program we will devote special attention to two important characteristics of the Serbs: Orthodox Christian religion and warrior spirit.

How can this two seemingly diametrically characteristics be together and how did Serbs struggled to preserve religion, culture and national identity? What was it like through the ages and millenniums of history to inherit the Byzantine Eastern-Roman legacy and Orthodox Christian church and then be found between the East (Islam) and West (Catholicism). Why does the Westerners thought that we belong to the East, and Easterners that we belong to the West. What have we accepted and what have we contributed...So, if you are really curious and patient enough ... The program includes Sightseeing by car, walking sightseeing and visit to selected museums.
