

WINE & ROMAN UNESCO TOUR

#16 WINE & ROMAN UNESCO TOUR

Two days - on request

During this trip you will have opportunity to discover East Serbia. Visit to the Late Roman fortified palace compound and memorial complex of Gamzigrad-Romuliana, Palace of Galerius, in the east of Serbia, commissioned by Emperor Caius Valerius Galerius Maximianus, in the late 3rd and early 4th centuries. It was known as Felix Romuliana, named after the emperor's mother. The site consists of fortifications, the palace in the north-western part of the complex, basilicas, temples, hot baths, memorial complex, and a tetra pylon. The group of buildings is also unique in its intertwining of ceremonial and memorial functions. From 2007. Romuliana is protected by UNESCO.

If you prefer to drink wine this is the right tour for you, because we will visit small village Rajac and famous Rajacke Pimnice wine cellars. Pivnice presents the cellars for grape processing and production of quality varieties of white and red wines. Cellars are built in the 18th century, from trimmed stone, buried in the ground. As such, represent a unique tourist attraction in the country. At the beginning of the 20th century Rajacke wines have been famous in Europe and won top medals at wine fairs. Since red wines should be highlighted Kabernet Sauvignon, Game, Burgundy, Vranac, and the white Rajanski Riesling, Semion, Chardonnay. Lunch will be served in one of wine cellars.
